

DISPOSITIONAL ALTERNATIVES: I.C. 31-37-19-5 and 31-37-19-6

1. Order supervision of the child by the probation department as a condition of probation under this subdivision.
2. Order the child to receive outpatient treatment at a social service agency or a psychological, a psychiatric, a medical, or an educational facility or from an individual practitioner.
3. Order the child to surrender the child's driver's license to the court for a specified period of time.
4. Order the child to pay restitution if the victim provides reasonable evidence of the victim's loss, which the child may challenge at the dispositional hearing.
5. Partially or completely emancipate the child.
6. Order the child to attend an alcohol and drug services program established under IC 12-23-14.
7. Order the child to perform community restitution or service for a specified period of time.
8. Award wardship to the department of correction for housing in a correctional facility for children or to a community based correctional facility for children. [Wardship under this subdivision does not include the right to consent to the child's adoption.]
9. If the child is less than seventeen (17) years of age, order confinement in a juvenile detention facility for not more than the lesser of:
  - (a) ninety (90) days; or
  - (b) the maximum term of imprisonment that could have been imposed on the child if the child had been convicted as an adult offender for the act that the child committed.
10. If the child is at least seventeen (17) years of age, order confinement in a juvenile detention facility for not more than the lesser of:
  - (a) one hundred twenty (120) days; or
  - (b) the maximum term of imprisonment that could have been imposed on the child if the child had been convicted as an adult offender for the act that the child committed.
11. Remove the child from the child's home and place the child in another home or shelter care facility. Placement under this subdivision includes authorization to control and discipline the child.
12. Award wardship to a person, other than the department; or a shelter care facility.
13. Place the child in a secure private facility for children licensed under the laws of a state. Placement under this subdivision includes authorization to control and discipline the child.
14. Order a person who to refrain from direct or indirect contact with the child.